SUMMARY OF ACTIVITY

Pierre-Yves Tschanz has been counsel of record in approximately 90 international arbitrations seated in Switzerland. In approximately half of them he was the lead counsel. The latter included several arbitrations with amounts in dispute exceeding a billion dollars.

In parallel to his activity as counsel, Mr Tschanz has been acting as an arbitrator in international arbitrations seated in New York, London, Paris, Stockholm, Vienna, The Hague, Warsaw, Bucharest, Athens, Geneva, Zurich and Lugano. Among these cases, he has been the presiding arbitrator in over 50 cases, sole arbitrator in over 25 cases, and co-arbitrator in over 40 cases. These cases included investment treaty arbitrations, six of which were ICSID cases, and one was administered by the Permanent Court of Arbitration.

Mr Tschanz also authored writings on international arbitration law, on which the Swiss Federal Supreme Court relied in numerous cases.
